The game name is: “Wslly وِصلي”

The goal of the game: to serve a specific number of services.

Description (how it will be played):

- Lamazone online shopping service has built the perfect delivery robot, a robot that can never stop moving.
- You play as RoboLarry who is new to the job and has to finish his daily delivery quota.
- Your battery is limited, and you can only hold one package at a time.
- Go to storage locations to take a package and deliver them to their corresponding customers.
- Steer left and right to avoid hitting buildings and moving cars and collect batteries on the road to recharge.
- Beware, the more energy you have, the faster you'll move.
